ACTIVITIES IN DETAIL

EUPHEUS – The Learning Community for English Teachers 2018-20

EUPHEUS, the learning community for English teachers was formed for the overall development of the prospective teachers of 2018-'20 batch. The literary forum aims to cultivate and cherish the language skills in students. Also learning is fostered through different activities. Three programme meetings were conducted during the first semester, along with the release of various creative and unique publications.

Kickoff

Kickoff is the first endeavor of Eupheus, Learning Community for English Teachers 2018-'20. It was successfully completed and introduced in the General Classroom for everyone on 23rd July 2018 at 9.45am.

Kickoff was brought out as a kick start for the B.Ed activities, the first step of our literary cum pedagogic voyage, under the editorship of Giby Babu. The FIFA World Cup of 2018 was chosen as the theme as that would help to integrate English language teaching dimensions with topic of current significance. Kickoff contains poems, articles, stories, and various language learning activities. The creative take on Football World Cup in the first part is followed by activities which gives a pedagogical angle into the world of sports. This is done to give a creative dimension and to make learning more enjoyable, interesting and inspirational for students.

First Meeting of Eupheus: The inaugural meeting of 'Eupheus', The English Association 2018-'20 was successfully conducted on 03/09/2018. The programme was coordinated by the student teacher Amrudha Siby. The theme was friendship. The programme began at 1:30 pm and the venue was class cum method lab, English. It was our maiden attempt to host a programme where the student teachers assumed the roles of different literary figures such as Sylvia Plath, Anne Saxton, Emily Dickinson, Charlotte Bronte, and V.S. Naipaul. Tribute to V.S. Naipaul was conducted along with the programme.

AMIGO CERCANO , the publication under the editorship of Amrudha Siby , was released on the first meeting. It was a collection of friendship poems written by the student teachers and also poems collected from school textbooks.

Second Meeting of Eupheus

The second meeting of Eupheus , Learning Community for English Teachers 2018-20, was conducted on 27th Sept 2018 in the Class cum Method Lab, English at 1: 40 pm. The meeting , coordinated by Anjana K.C was a tribute to the 130th birthday of T S Eliot which was on 26th September.

Eliot’s popular play Murder in the Cathedral was chosen as our first initiative in the area of transforming discourses. ATHINSINT was made under the editorship of Anjana K.C. The student teachers staged the first part of the play.

Third meeting of EUPHEUS

The third meeting of Eupheus was a tribute to Gullivers Travels and was successfully conducted on 22nd October 2018 (Monday).The programme , coordinated by the student teacher Revathy Parameswaran , was based on the theme of Travelogues.The various travelogues from different languages were introduced by the student teachers.

BIYAHE, a collection of travel narratives made under the editorship of Revathy Parameswaran was released in the meeting.The work contained the imaginary travel experience of the student teachers to seven mysterious islands.

ACADEMIC ACTIVITIES

Individual Publications

Eupheus, the Learning Community for English Teachers 2018-'20, welcomed the month of Onam by producing individual manuscript activity books about festival. The student teachers perceived the theme in different angles and produced unique outcomes.

Festal Ensenar is the activity book made by Giby Babu. Festal means 'festive' and Ensenar is a Spanish word which means 'to teach'. In Festal Ensenar, the festivals of Christmas, Diwali and Holi are taken and integrated to produce learning activities that can improve all the language skills like listening, speaking, reading and writing. The work is an attempt to make English language learning more enjoyable, interesting and intelligible by giving festival as a context to learn language. Imbibing the essence of festivals, great care has been taken to transform that into the activities.

Fete is the work done by Amrudha Siby. Fiesta means festivals. Fiesta deals with articles about various festivals celebrated in India. There are poems, stories, articles, etc. various activities that will help to develop the skills in children are also incorporated in the work. The work was very successful as it deals with the overall development of a child. As student teachers it was a great opportunity for us to do this work as it is closely attached to school student's books.

Gala, is the work done by the student teacher Akhila John. It is a celebration of festivals. Different learning activities related to the festivals such as Onam, Holy and Dipawali were included in the work. These activities help the learners to enhance their listening, speaking, reading and writing skills.

Fiesta is the magazine prepared by Anjana K C. The term fiesta means festival which is originally an Italian word. Through the work we focused to provide diverse exposure to the students for improving their various language skills. Fiesta is divided into four units on Onam, Bakrid, Vishu and Christmas respectively. It is a magazine which seeks the possibility of linking the second language learning with the contemporary life. All the activities including the grammar practises and creative writings are framed in a way that would inculcate interest for the students. The work will be helpful to make language learning a natural process.

Carnival is an attempt by the student teacher Arya Premaraj which focused on the theme learning English through festivals. It is an activity book and incorporated both linguistic as well as literary aspects of English .

Fiesta is an individual manuscript prepared on the basis of the theme festival during the month of September. It was a month of different festivals such as onam, bakrid etc... Fiesta is the manuscript made by Revathi Parameswaran. In Spanish fiesta means feast.

Jubilee, a work done by the student teacher Meenu T. C explores the theme of festivals through different learning activities. The work aims to improve the English language skills through activities.

ACTIVITIES IN DETAIL

EUPHEUS – The Learning Community for English Teachers 2018-'20

EUPHEUS, the learning community for English teachers was formed for the overall development of the prospective teachers of 2018-'20 batch. The literary forum aims to cultivate and cherish the language skills in students. Also learning is fostered through different activities. Three programme meetings were conducted during the second semester, along with the release of various creative and unique publications.

Fourth Meeting of Eupheus

The fourth meeting of Eupheus, Learning Community for English Teachers 2018-'20, was coordinated by Akhila John. It was conducted on 12th December 2018, in remembrance of the public screening of the first motion picture by Lumiere brothers. Nova, a tribute to the birth of cinema was introduced and a presentation about the features of film was done on the occasion. The venue for the programme was class cum Method Lab, English. Nova, under the editorship of Akhila is the small attempt of the learning community to deconstruct the script of the play The Glass Menagerie by Tennessee Williams.

Fifth Meeting of Eupheus

The fifth meeting of Eupheus, coordinated by Arya Premaraj P.K was successfully conducted on 29th January 2019 in the Class cum Method Lab, at 10.40 pm. It was a tribute to the 137th birthday of Virginia Woolf which was on 25th January. The Pedago - Literary contribution for the same was the publication Zatiak which is a humble attempt to explore and expand the possibility of the Stream of Consciousness, one of the literary techniques used by Virginia Woolf, to the realm of discourses.

Zatiak is a collection of diary entries of seven female characters which are written in accordance with the stream of consciousness technique. The seven female characters were selected from Kerala Reader English textbooks starting from class 8 to class 12. There was a presentation of imaginary soliloquies of the seven female literary characters. Each student teacher was assigned with a particular character to perform. Student teachers from the second year English optional and Sruthi R.K of Malayalam optional were present as the audience for the programme.

Sixth Meeting Of Eupheus

The sixth meeting was conducted as a dedication to the 88th birthday of Tony Morrison, an eminent figure of black feminism. Tony Morrison is the cult figure of feminism who wrote mainly about the discrimination against woman on the basis of both gender and race. The programme was conducted on 6th March 2019 at 10.40 am. Aufsatz, a collection of essays on black feminism was released on the occasion. A mime on woman empowerment was also performed in the meeting as a part of the woman's day celebration. The exploitation against the woman in the present era was the theme of the mime. The student teachers took different roles in the mime.

Mid- Semester Examination and Model Examination were conducted.

EXTENDED ACTIVITIES

Commemorations & Tributes to the Great Authors

- Tribute to the 183rd Birthday of Mark Twain

Mark Twain's 183rd birthday was celebrated on 30th November , 2018. Anjana K.C, the student teacher presented a documentary on the life of Mark Twain .

Samuel Langhorne Clemens (November 30, 1835 – April 21, 1910), known by his pen name Mark Twain, was an American writer, humorist, entrepreneur, publisher, and lecturer. His famous novels include The Adventures of Tom Sawyer (1876) and its sequel, the Adventures of Huckleberry Finn (1885), and Life on the Mississippi(1883). Twain was raised in Hannibal, Missouri, which later provided the setting for Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn. He served an apprenticeship with a printer and then worked as a typesetter, contributing articles to the newspaper of his older brother Orion Clemens. He later became a riverboat pilot on the Mississippi River before heading west to join Orion in Nevada. He referred humorously to his lack of success at mining, turning to journalism for the Virginia City Territorial Enterprise. His humorous story, "The Celebrated Jumping Frog of Calaveras County", was published in 1865, based on a story that he heard at Angels Hotel in Angels Camp, California, where he had spent some time as a miner. The short story brought international attention and was even translated into French. His wit and satire, in prose and in speech, earned praise from critics and peers. Faulkner called him as the 'father of American Literature.'

▪ Commemoration of the 207th Birthday of Charles Dickens

As a commemoration to the 207th B'day of the legendary writer Charles Dickens, the members of Eupheus Learning community for English teachers celebrated the day on 5th February 2019. Revathi Parameswaran coordinated the programme. It included varieties of learning activities like RP JUNCTION: Interview with Dickens, An Outlook On Major Works of Dickens : Presentation, DICKENS DELIGHT: Quiz Competition, Meraki – Display on Dickens and Exhibition of Dickens' works.

- RP JUNCTION: Interview with Dickens

The very first programme was R P Junction, an imaginary interview with Charles Dickens hosted by Revathi Parameswaran. The interview consists of two sessions and the first set of questions dealt with an enquiry about the personal details as well as about some of his major works. The second session was dealt with a series of rapid fire questions and it was completely funny.

- Presentation On Dickens' Major Works

Our next programme was the highlight of the day, it was an interesting documentary presentation about the life of Dickens and a seminar presentation. The resource person of the seminar presentation was Anjana K C. She gave us a clear idea about the major works of Dickens as well as the memorable characters. Her presentation was really informative as well as resourceful. The audience was able to get the spirit of literature through the presentation.

- DICKENS DELIGHT: Quiz Competition

The presentation was followed by Dickens Delight, a quiz programme about the life and works of Dickens. Giby Babu and Arya Premaraj PK took the responsibility as Quiz Masters. They provided the instructions for the quiz programme. The audience took part in the Quiz programme with great enthusiasm. There were two rounds for the Quiz programme and the Preliminary round consisted of 8 questions carrying one mark each. In the first round Anjana, Akhila and Revathi from English department and Nimisha from Malayalam department successfully qualified for the final round. The final round was more tough and challenging for the contestants. Finally Anjana K C proved her knowledge by collecting 17 points and become the winner of the quiz competition and Nimisha became the Runner up. It was Dickens who distributed the prizes to the winners.

- Meraki – Display on Dickens

Kerala Literature Festival (KLF)

Kerala Lit Fest is the second largest cultural gathering in the country. Set along the shore of the Arabian sea by the beaches of Calicut, the KLF offers something for just about every age and interest, bringing readers and writers together for inspiration, entertainment, and discussion. Every Year, The festival presents an array of the best artists, actors, celebrities, writers, thinkers, and activists closer to people by engaging in meaningful discussions on literature, art, cinema, culture, dance, music, environment, science, and technology. Fireside chats at night with a plethora of performing artists like rock bands, musicians, dancers, concerts, ghazal nights make altogether, the Kerala Lit Fest an indelible affair in the literary scene. With the goal of reaching as broad an audience as possible and including them in the festival in many ways, KLF remains open to the public, non-exclusive and open platform for discussions and idea exchanges. Wales is the guest nation for the year, offering audiences a taste of the contemporary legacy of one of Europe's oldest cultural traditions. Featuring leading Welsh authors and the innovative Invertigo Theatre Company with their show My Body Welsh, the Guest Nation Wales programme will also include a day dedicated to screenings of Welsh films related to literature.

This year KLF was scheduled on January 10th to 13th. The student teachers of English attended the different sessions in KLF on 12th and 13th January 2019. The sessions were 'Budhini Enna Penkutti Aaranu?', 'Pennenangal', 'Fiction is Truth', 'Seventy and to Hell with it'. The interactive sessions of different authors like Arundhati Roy, Shoba De, Sachidhanadhan, Sarah Joseph etc were enlightening experience. The current trends in literature as well as the socio political situations of the era were the major themes discussed in these sessions.

Paper Presentations in National Science Conference

The student teachers namely Arya Premaraj , Anjana K.C and Akhila John could present papers on a National Science Conference conducted in P.K.M College under the guidance of Dr. Rekha K.R. The paper prepared by Arya Premaraj with Dr.

Rekha K.R was selected as the Best Paper in the Humanities session. Also Anjana K.C was selected as the Best Paper Presenter. The details on the papers are given below.

- DEPICTION OF SCIENCE IN DYING EARTH: A JOURNEY THROUGH *THE TIME MACHINE

Authors : Anjana K C¹ & Dr. Rekha K R²

The paper analyses the depiction of science in Dying Earth Genre by focusing upon H.G Well's time travelling novella The Time Machine (1895). The novella explores possibility of time as the fourth dimension which later influenced the time-space theories of scientists. The Time Machine has extended the possibilities of time-travelling studies. Thus it proves the influence science can put up on literature and vice versa. The speculation of possible future of mankind depicted in the work will help us to create awareness about the current status of the society.

- SCOPE OF CLI-FI IN CLIMATE EDUCATION:

A PRESENT SCENARIO

Authors : Arya Premaraj P.K¹ and Dr. Rekha K.R²

The threatening consequences of the issues demand necessary public awareness on climate change across the world. The paper analyses how literature acts as a tool in the process of climate education through emerging genres like cli-fi. Scholars have identified Cli-Fi as an innovative and alternative attempt to communicate the scientific dimensions of the unpredictable environmental changes of the time. J.G Ballard's The Drowned World, one of the founding texts of the genre addresses the issues like solar radiation and increasing global temperature and reveals closer links with the scientific developments .

- GLOBAL WARMING: A SUICIDE PILL FOR EARTH

Authors: Akhila John and Dr. Rekha K.R²

The paper studies the new type of climatic impact on the environment based on Roland Emmeriche's movie "The Day After Tomorrow", the top-ranking film in the film genre 'Global Warming Films'. The film depicts the fall of Earth as an impact of Global Warming on Earth. Emmerich intends to make the world aware that American's are the primary contributors of Global Warming and thereafter victims of their own actions. The movie forces us to believe that global warming will cause another Ice Age.
