A Report on LAURELS: Celebration Of Victory

During the Silver Jubilee Year of PKM College of Education 2019-2020, ELIXIR, the learning community for English Teaching celebrated the victory of Nobel Laureates for literature, of both the years, 2018 and 2019. The activity was conducted in the general classroom during the general assembly on 11th of October 2019.

Paper presentations were done on both the personalities. The 2018 Nobel Prize was won by Olga Tokarczuk. She is the 115th author to win the Nobel Prize. She is also the 15th female authors to win the Nobel. She was born on 29th January 1962 and was a poet, author and essayist. She is also a psychologist. Her notable works are Flights and The book of Jacob Primeval and Other Times. She has also won a number of awards like the Nike Award, Vilenica Prize, Brukepreis etc. She was noted for her mythical tone of writing. Since the 2018 award was postponed last year, after the Swedish Academy, the body that selects the Nobel winners was hit by a series of allegations about sex abuse, corruption and a possible cover-up, it was given away this year.

She was awarded the Nobel prize for a narrative imagination that with encyclopedic passion represents the crossing of boundaries as a form of life.

Peter Handke is the Nobel Prize winner of the year 2019. He was born on 6th of December 1942. He is a novelist, playwright, and a translator. He awarded the Nobel Prize for an influential work that with linguistic ingenuity has explored the periphery and the specificity of human experience. This activity involved the participation of each and every member of the learning community Elixir. Moreover the team was successful in doing the the presentation on the very next day of the Nobel Prize declaration. The activity was coordinated by Miss Siona Jacob. The slide presentation of Olga Tokarczuk and Peter Handke was prepared by Siona Jacob and Jomal Jose respectively. The introductory note was given by Siona Jacob. The paper presentation on Olga Tokarczuk was done by Jofia Jose and that of Peter Handke was done by Rahul K. The digital session was handled by Jomal Jose and the Photography was handled by Jhons Biju and Sruthi Ramesh.
