

P.K.M College of Education, Madampam

REPORT

Student Induction Programme (2022-2023)

The Student Induction Programme for the 1st year B.Ed. students (2022-2024) was commenced on 26th September 2022 at 10.15 am by P. K. M. College of Education, Madampam. The programme was begun with a prayer song by Ms. Sreethu M. Mr. Pradeban Maloth was invited as the resource person who is a Counselor, Psychotherapist and Soft Skill Trainer. Ms. Aiswarya K. delivered the welcome address and enunciated the relevance of the topic. Fr. Dr. Sinoj Joseph introduced the resource person to us.

The programme started with an ice breaking session where he made us to sit in a circle. The class included various games and interactive sessions. Through these activities he made us understand the various challenges a teacher could face in the present scenario and the ways to tackle the same. He made us work on our logical thinking and reasoning skills through various games such as puzzle, free fall etc., The significance of flexibility in teachers' life to take up different roles were emphasized through certain other activities.

The underlying motive of the session was to make us realize the various qualities and abilities that a teacher should own in this new normal era such as the ability to think out of the box, flexibility, integrity, optimum utilization of resource, having empathy to the fellow beings, decision making, coordination, co-operation etc.,

At the end of the session, the students were provided the opportunity to give their valuable feedback on the programme. The principal, Dr. Sr. Jessy N.C addressed the student teachers in the closing ceremony and the vote of thanks was proposed by Ms. Adithya Raj. The programme came to an end at 04.15 p.m. with the National Anthem.

P.K.M College of Education, Madampam

REPORT

Student Induction Programme – Day 2(2022-2023)

DAY 2- SESSION 1

The second day of Student Induction Programme for 1st year B.Ed. students (2022-2024) was held on 27th September 2022 at 10.00 am by P. K. M. College of Education, Madampam. The first session was started with a prayer song by Ms. Anu Maria Jacob. Mr. Biju KK, an alumni of our college, was invited as the resource person who is a Civil police officer and a Social worker. Ms. Drishya P P delivered the welcome address and enunciated the relevance of the topic. A report of the first day of Induction programme was presented by Ms. Christy Philip. Before the beginning of the session Fr. Dr. Sinoj introduced the resource person to us.

The session was on the topic “Equipping With Competence”. The class was highly interactive and he tried to communicate the challenges faced by teachers nowadays. Through this session, he made us understand the various challenges a teacher could face in the present scenario and the ways to tackle the same. The significance of flexibility in a teacher’s life to take up different roles were emphasized through his informative talk and he also mentioned about the laws and the importance of learning laws by each students to secure themselves from the current social issues.

The underlying motive of the session was to mould us with various qualities and skills that a teacher should own in this new normal era such as technical skills, flexibility, integrity, showing equality within the students, optimum utilization of resource, having empathy to the fellow beings, decision making, coordination, co-operation etc., and also to equip us with competence.

At the end of the session, the students were provided the opportunity to discuss their doubts and worries on the topic. Father Dr. Sinoj Joseph addressed the student teachers in the closing ceremony and the vote of thanks was proposed by Ms. Aiswarya PV. The programme came to an end by 12 p.m and was dispersed for lunch break.

DAY2-SESSION 2

The 2nd session of the programme started at 01.30 pm. Mr. Manoj Kuriakose was invited as the resource person who is an English teacher with more than 20 years of experience. Ms. Aiswarya K gave a brief introduction on the session and invited Ms. Linet Treesa Mathew for the welcome address. Dr. Veena Appukuttan shared her prior experience with the resource person.

Mr. Manoj Kuriakose started the session by sharing one of his most memorable experiences where he attended the class of a dumb person, through which he enlightened us about the importance of having confidence and self- belief. Throughout the class, he maintained a pleasant face which itself is a quality a teacher should attain. The session was, in fact, a journey through his life stories and experiences as a teacher. He made us realize the importance of making students fall in love with both the teacher and the subject and thus creating a friendly environment in the classroom.

The session resumed after a short break. In the next section he provided us with various tips on how to establish a warm relation with the students. He reiterated the fact that a teacher should not be judgmental and prejudiced with a stereotyped mind. He also urged us to find our own teaching method and thus to create a unique identity. There was an interacting session where some of the student teachers shared their concerns. Ms. Archana K. N. and Ms. Aiswarya P. V. embellished the session with their beautiful songs.

At the end of the session, the students were provided the opportunity to give their valuable feedback on the programme. Then Fr. Dr. Sinoj addressed the students in the closing ceremony and the vote of thanks was proposed by Ms. Tincy Thomas. The programme came to an end at 03.50 p.m. with the National Anthem.

P. K. M. College of Education, Madampam

REPORT

Student Induction Programme-Day 3(2022-2023)

The 3rd day of student induction programme for 1st year B.Ed students (2022-2024) was held on 28th September 2022 at 10.00 a.m by P. K. M. College of Education, Madampam. Mr. S. K. Jayadevan, Senior lecturer, DIET Kannur & Mr. Santhosh Kumar, Lecturer, DIET Kannur were invited as the resource person for the programme. Ms. Anusha V. delivered the welcome address and invited Ms. Seethal C. for presenting the report of the previous day. Before the beginning of the session Fr. Dr. Sinoj Joseph introduced the resource person to us.

The session was on the topic “Transforming with challenging roles”. The programme was initiated by Mr. Jayadevan with a brief talk. Later, Mr. Santhosh Kumar took over the session with an ice breaking section. Initially we were divided into 2 groups and made us to do certain games and activities. Through this he enlightened us with various abilities a teacher should develop in due course of time such as proper communication, time management, team work, planning etc., Finally he concluded by highlighting the importance of maintaining happiness in the classroom. The session was dispersed for a short break.

After the break, the students were gathered and Mr. Jayadevan displayed a short film named Mashi, after which the students were divided into 8 groups to discuss about certain questions related to the film. Later he conducted a test to evaluate our knowledge on general education.

The session resumed after the lunch break and was filled with various activities emphasizing different qualities a teacher should possess such as quick response, co-ordination between mind and body, decision making and so on. Again the students were divided into 4 groups and various group activities like tableau, skit etc.

By the end of the session a questionnaire was given and the students were given the opportunity to give their feedback. Then Fr. Dr. Sinoj addressed the group and Mr. Jyothis Cyriac proposed the vote of thanks. The programme came to an end by 03.50 p.m. with the National Anthem.

P.K.M College of Education, Madampam

REPORT

Student Induction Programme-Day 4 (2022-2023)

The fourth day of Student Induction Programme for the 1st year B.Ed. students (2022-2024) was held on 6th October 2022 at 09.30 am by P. K. M. College of Education, Madampam. Mr. Nithin Nangoth was invited as the resource person who is a Multi-Talented HRD Trainer, Counselling, Psychologist, Sports Psychologist, International Celebrity Mentor, Social and Spiritual orator. Ms. Ann Maria Raju delivered the welcome address and enunciated the relevance of the topic. Dr. Veena Appukuttan introduced the resource person to us.

The programme started with an ice breaking session where he made us to sit in a circle. The class included various games and interactive sessions. Through these activities he made us understand the various challenges a teacher could face in the present scenario and the ways to tackle the same. He made us work on our logical thinking and reasoning skills through various games.

The underlying motive of the session was to make us realize the 6Qs in life which are IQ, EQ, RQ, SQ, SDQ and CQ. He also made us realize the importance of grabbing opportunities at the right time and urged us to be our own promoters.

In the afternoon section he divided us into different groups and made us talk about various relevant topics. Then through various activities he pinpointed the different qualities a person should possess, such as concentration, confidence, self-esteem, body mind coordination, problem solving skill, decision making, critical thinking, time management etc.

At the end of the session, the students were provided the opportunity to give their valuable feedback on the programme and the vote of thanks was proposed by Ms. Anitta Roy.

At 03.40p.m. the valedictory function was begun with prayer song sung by Ms. Aiswarya P.V. Dr. Sholy Joseph K delivered the welcome address. Ms. Aiswarya K gave an overview of the Student Induction programme. Dr. Sr. Jessy N.C. gave the presidential address. Students from each optional subject were given an opportunity to give their feedback on the whole programme after which Dr. Veena Appukuttan addressed the students. The vote of thanks was proposed by Mr. Jyothis Cyriac and the programme came to an end at 05.00p.m. with the National Anthem.

