Session 1

A brainstorming session named "Break the shell" was conducted by the Department of Natural Science on 20th October, 11:00 a.m at the Natural Science classroom cum methodology lab. The objectives of the program were to find solutions for stage fear, lack of confidence, and communication proficiency. The session was mediated by Miss Jomol Jose, assistant professor in natural science, and Miss Simmi Thomas, M.Ed scholar at the School of Pedagogical Sciences at Kannur University. The student teachers of natural science actively participated in the session.

The solutions put forward by the participants in the case of stage fear include utilizing opportunities, planning, and preparation, getting familiarized with the environment, Realize your strength and weakness, visualizing success, self motivation, practice, don't stick onto the mistakes. For lack of confidence, the solutions suggested were preparation and planning, optimism, self self-motivation, communication skills, find a resource person. Saying what you know, keeping a rapport with the audience, and improving other languages, were the solutions proposed for improving communication proficiency. The mediators concluded and suggested additional solutions for each problem. The first session came to an end at 12:30 p.m.

Session 2

The brainstorming session 2 was conducted on 21 October 2022, 1 30 PM. The session was mediated by Jomol Jose, Assistant professor in natural science. The main objectives of session 2 were lack of subject knowledge and Technical skills proficiency.

The solutions put forward by the participants in the case of lack of subject knowledge were prepare an in-depth, study at the application level, update knowledge, share knowledge with others, use other media, test ourselves, attend seminars, and other classes, and refer to many textbooks and foreign authors. For lack of technical skills proficiency, the solutions suggested were tutorial videos, self-learning, attending courses, continuous use and update, and computer classes. The mediator concluded and suggested additional solutions for each problem. Session 2 came to an end at 2:30 PM.
