REPORT OF MENTORING DAY CELEBRATION 2020

Mentoring is a professional activity, a trusted relationship and a meaningful commitment. October 27 is celebrated as National mentoring day. This is a day to remember our mentors and think about how we can become a good mentor. As part of this, the Math Lovers Club and Women Cell, Swatchata and Rural Engagement Cell, of P. K. M College of education jointly celebrated National Mentoring Day.

Mentoring Day Celebrations were there on 27th October, 2020 at 10.30 am in the Microsoft Teams.

Celebrations were started with a silent prayer. Dr. Sholy Joseph K welcomed the gathering. Principal Dr. Sr. Jessy N C inaugurated the function. The first paper presentation was by Anju Varghese. She gave detailed description about the mentoring in the present scenario. She described about different types of mentoring too.

The second presentation was on different mentoring skills. A detailed presentation about different types of mentoring skills was done by Jain James. She gave example of world famous mentors in the history.
