The program started with a prayer and the welcome speech was delivered by Sister Minimol George, the head of the Malayalam section. (K.M.College of Education)

Sister also talked about the situation that we have to change according to this changing environment because every day is a new experience. Sisters were also introduced to the greatness of those who have a proper understanding of lesson planning and evaluation. Senior Lecturer in Diet Kannur Dr.K. Pigopinathan Class started with a focus on high school classes, the highest level of language learning.

How to take children to a higher level in a language class is what every number of would-be language teachers need to do. He said that he should meditate. Love. He also pointed out the fact that they are at their own age in the teenage years when they want recognition and the teachers are given opportunities accordingly. It is important that

Also, Sir said that in order to bring full attention of the children in the language classes, whatever they read should be presented in a very interesting way and very precise planning is needed by the teachers. At some intervals, the teacher asked the students for their opinions, so the class progressed through mutual discussions. Sarvisha has meticulously covered all the strategies needed to succeed in a language class.

Gopi Nathansar was also ready to make things clear with examples through the lessons of Orum Manusyan. Through accurate examples and essay activities. The essays will be conducted and the child will self-assess. Discussions explained that all strategies needed to create self-learning behavior should be done in the class and when teaching things like poetry in the class, teachers should set a good example for the child to discover its concept and beauty. Murd

Sir also went into the levels of the teaching manual. There are some strategies that should be kept in mind while preparing the curriculum.

Mr. Gopinathan spoke about the need for teachers to be readers and not readers. He also said that a teacher needs to lead children to moral values and make them think at a higher level. Talking about the value of textbooks and not just language teaching

Sir also said that the teacher should enable the child to become a socially responsible person. That we have come a long way from the ancient letter-based presentation to the idea-based presentation method,

Sir pointed out that children need to be given opportunities everywhere. By quoting the lines of NA 9 Kakadin, saying that teaching in the way of teaching children helps them in their journey, Sir narrowed down the issues and cleared the doubts of the teacher students along with Sir. Apart from that, each student teacher and his/her personal opinion about Sarintros was recorded at the end.

Natural science

Pre internship orientation

Internship period is the most mysterious and important part of B.Ed period. When it came to the online learning and teaching method due to the Corona epidemic, B. PKM is a prelude to the preparation for ED students as part of their internship. The college conducted two-day classes in each department by inviting teachers from various schools as teachers in their field. 02/09/2021 & 04/09/2020 MSM Pre Internship Orientation for Natural Science students was conducted by . Natural Science Department teachers welcomed the program. Sir's biggest highlight was 'full pack emergency' from the beginning till the end of the class. Similarly. In the beginning, Vinod sir did not forget to ask everyone's name and country and consider everyone in the class. Later, I felt that an online class can be made more beautiful, because it was like sitting in an online class and listening to an excellent offline class. The classes were conducted in a calm style. Trends of teaching. Importance of lesson plan, Student Evaluation. Even for a moment he bore us every once in a while called each one of us by name and asked each and every thing and opinion. The task given to Mash completed the section with 100% perfection sir. Once in a lifetime The classmates who heard the class commented that the class and the face of the sir have been imprinted in the mind of every child in such a way that they cannot forget the sir. The program ended with vote of thanks by Athira Anand.

The pre-internship orientation conducted by the PKM College of Education Malayalam Section was held on the theme "Recent Trends in Evaluation & Statics in Education".

The program started at 11.30 am on Saturday 11th September 2021 and ended at 4 pm. Malayalam department teacher Sister Caroline FC delivered the welcome speech in the program organized on Zoom platform. Dr. Prashant Mathew managed the section for the Malayalam department teacher students. (Assistant Professor of Physical Science, PKM College of Education) was an era of new developments in the field of teaching, there were discussions about changed teaching methods, assessments and the importance of statistics. At 3 o'clock the said section ended and after that the doubt clearing of teacher students took place. Atulya C, a Malayalam teacher student and class representative, spoke in gratitude for the program.

Pre-internship orientation programme for English optional was organised by P. K. M. College of Education, Madampam on 24th September 2022 at 09:45 am. T. M. Ramachandran of GHSS, Nedungome was invited as the district resource person who hoard a rich knowledge in the pedagogy of English language. Dr. Rekha K R, assistant professor, delivered the welcome address enunciating on the need to squeeze the best of the exceptional teacher through interactions and attentive behaviour, and flagging off for the beginning of the class consisting 7 optional students-teachers.

The pre-internship class included various language games, a discussion on grammar rules, discourses and an interactive session with the resource person. T. M. Ramachandran emphasised the importance of activities in the classroom and the need to convert language classes into activity based zones. Through vocabulary games such as make-many-words-from-one-word, crossword puzzle, riddle and fill the grid, he mentioned on how activities should be challenging, participatory, should have the participation of a student at least on one stage of the activity and should never divert from the learning objective. Mr. Ramachandran is of the view that silence and discipline should never reign on in language classes as it hinders free participation and interacting opportunities.

The internship programme moved forward with the resource person hinting on the various grammatical rules that are included in high school classes, which the student-teachers need to be aware of and thorough, to take classes for the young children. He touched upon word pyramid, editing, numbers, past tense, modal auxiliaries, and questions tags. The significance of discourses was also mentioned with which the learners indulge more deeply with the text, and the need for the ability of teachers to find slots in the text to give questions of discourses. He exemplified on how to give discourse question through the story The Hare and the Tortoise such as letter writing, profile writing, notice writing, appreciation, character sketch and more. Interactive session followed where student-teachers raised their concerns of real classroom situation and how to manage it. Mr. Ramachandran stressed on the need for preparation, confidence on the content to be taught and need for interactive, activity based classes where learners can learn freely. The programme came to an end with vote of thanks proposed by the student-teacher Karishma Suresh at 01:00 pm.

Student Induction Programme: “Teacher:Beyond the New Normal”

P.K.M College of Education, Madampam

REPORT

Student Induction Programme (2022-2023)

The Student Induction Programme for the 1st year B.Ed. students (2022-2024) was commenced on 26th September 2022 at 10.15 am by P. K. M. College of Education, Madampam. The programme was begun with a prayer song by Ms. Sreetha M. Mr. Pradeepan Maloth was invited as the resource person who is a Counselor, Psychotherapist and Soft Skill Trainer. Ms. Airwarya K. delivered the welcome address and enunciated the relevance of the topic. Fr. Dr. Sinej Joseph introduced the resource person to us.

The programme started with an ice breaking session where he made us to sit in a circle. The class included various games and interactive sessions. Through these activities he made us understand the various challenges a teacher could face in the present scenario and the ways to tackle the same. He made us work on our logical thinking and reasoning skills through various games such as puzzle, free fall etc. The significance of flexibility in teachers' life to take up different roles were emphasized through certain other activities.

The underlying motive of the session was to make us realize the various qualities and abilities that a teacher should own in this new normal era such as the ability to think out of the box, flexibility, integrity, optimum utilization of resource, having empathy to the fellow beings, decision making, coordination, co-operation etc.

DAY 2- SESSION 1

The second day of Student Induction Programme for 1st year B.Ed. students (2022-2024) was held on 27th September 2022 at 10.00 am by P. K. M. College of Education, Madampam. The first session was started with a prayer song by Ms. Anu Maria Jacob. Mr. Biju KK, an alumni of our college, was invited as the resource person who is a Civil police officer and a Social worker. Ms. Drishya P P delivered the welcome address and enunciated the relevance of the topic. A report of the first day of Induction programme was presented by Ms. Christy Philip. Before the beginning of the session Fr. Dr. Sinoj introduced the resource person to us.

The session was on the topic "Equipping With Competence". The class was highly interactive and he tried to communicate the challenges faced by teachers nowadays. Through this session, he made us understand the various challenges a teacher could face in the present scenario and the ways to tackle the same. The significance of flexibility in a teacher's life to take up different roles were emphasized through his informative talk and he also mentioned about the laws and the importance of learning laws by each students to secure themselves from the current social issues.

DAY2-SESSION 2

The 2nd session of the programme started at 01.30 pm. Mr. Manoj Kuriakose was invited as the resource person who is an English teacher with more than 20 years of experience. Ms. Aiswarya K gave a brief introduction on the session and invited Ms. Linet Treesa Mathew for the welcome address. Dr. Veena Appukuttan shared her prior experience with the resource person.

Mr. Manoj Kuriakose started the session by sharing one of his most memorable experiences where he attended the class of a dumb person, through which he enlightened us about the importance of having confidence and self- belief. Throughout the class, he maintained a pleasant face which itself is a quality a teacher should attain. The session was, in fact, a journey through his life stories and experiences as a teacher. He made us realize the importance of making students fall in love with both the teacher and the subject and thus creating a friendly environment in the classroom.

The session resumed after a short break. In the next section he provided us with various tips on how to establish a warm relation with the students. He reiterated the fact that a teacher should not be judgmental and prejudiced with a stereotyped mind. He also urged us to find our own teaching method and thus to create a unique identity. There was an interacting session where some of the student teachers shared their concerns. Ms. Archana K. N. and Ms. Aiswarya P. V. embellished the session with their beautiful songs.

At the end of the session, the students were provided the opportunity to give their valuable feedback on the programme. Then Fr. Dr. Sinoj addressed the students in the closing ceremony and the vote of thanks was proposed by Ms. Tincy Thomas. The programme came to an end at 03.50 p.m. with the National Anthem.

The 3rd day of student induction programme for 1st year B.Ed students (2022-2024) was held on 28th September 2022 at 10.00 a.m by P. K. M. College of Education, Madampam. Mr. S. K. Jayadevan, Senior lecturer, DIET Kannur & Mr. Santhosh Kumar, Lecturer, DIET Kannur were invited as the resource person for the programme. Ms. Anusha V. delivered the welcome address and invited Ms. Seethal C. for presenting the report of the previous day. Before the beginning of the session Fr. Dr. Sinoj Joseph introduced the resource person to us.

The session was on the topic "Transforming with challenging roles". The programme was initiated by Mr. Jayadevan with a brief talk. Later, Mr. Santhosh Kumar took over the session with an ice breaking section. Initially we were divided into 2 groups and made us to do certain games and activities. Through this he enlightened us with various abilities a teacher should develop in due course of time such as proper communication, time management, team work, planning etc., Finally he concluded by highlighting the importance of maintaining happiness in the classroom. The session was dispersed for a short break.

After the break, the students were gathered and Mr. Jayadevan displayed a short film named Mashi, after which the students were divided into 8 groups to discuss about certain questions related to the film. Later he conducted a test to evaluate our knowledge on general education.

The session resumed after the lunch break and was filled with various activities emphasizing different qualities a teacher should possess such as quick response, co-ordination between mind and body, decision making and so on. Again the students were divided into 4 groups and various group activities like tableau, skit etc.

By the end of the session a questionnaire was given and the students were given the opportunity to give their feedback. Then Fr. Dr. Sinoj addressed the group and Mr. Jyothis Cyriac proposed the vote of thanks. The programme came to an end by 03.50 p.m. with the National Anthem.

REPORT

Student Induction Programme-Day 4 (2022-2023)

The fourth day of Student Induction Programme for the 1st year B.Ed. students (2022-2024) was held on 6th October 2022 at 09.30 am by P. K. M. College of Education, Madampam. Mr. Nithin Nangoth was invited as the resource person who is a Multi-Talented HRD Trainer, Counselling, Psychologist, Sports Psychologist, International Celebrity Mentor, Social and Spiritual orator. Ms. Ann Maria Raju delivered the welcome address and enunciated the relevance of the topic. Dr. Veena Appukuttan introduced the resource person to us.

The programme started with an ice breaking session where he made us to sit in a circle. The class included various games and interactive sessions. Through these activities he made us understand the various challenges a teacher could face in the present scenario and the ways to tackle the same. He made us work on our logical thinking and reasoning skills through various games.

The underlying motive of the session was to make us realize the 6Qs in life which are IQ, EQ, RQ, SQ, SDQ and CQ. He also made us realize the importance of grabbing opportunities at the right time and urged us to be our own promoters.

In the afternoon section he divided us into different groups and made us talk about various relevant topics. Then through various activities he pinpointed the different qualities a person should possess, such as concentration, confidence, self-esteem, body mind coordination, problem solving skill, decision making, critical thinking, time management etc.

At the end of the session, the students were provided the opportunity to give their valuable feedback on the programme and the vote of thanks was proposed by Ms. Anita Roy.

At 03.40p.m. the valedictory function was begun with prayer song sung by Ms. Aiswarya P.V. Dr. Sholy Joseph K delivered the welcome address. Ms. Aiswarya K gave an overview of the Student Induction programme. Dr. Sr. Jessy N.C gave the presidential address. Students from each optional subject were given an opportunity to give their feedback on the whole programme after which Dr. Veena Appukuttan addressed the students. The vote of thanks was proposed by Mr. Jyothis Cyriac and the programme came to an end at 05.00p.m. with the National Anthem.
