Dear Biju Mathew,

PKM College of Education is a reputable institution dedicated to providing quality education to aspiring teachers. We are currently assisting students from distant areas who are facing challenges in finding suitable accommodation near the college.

We have identified your property as a potential solution to this issue and are kindly requesting your permission to allow these students to reside in your premises. This arrangement would greatly support their academic pursuits and contribute to the positive community atmosphere around the college.

Your consideration of this request is highly appreciated.

Thanking you.

Report of the Placement Cell 2021-22

The Placement-Cell could provide orientation for getting qualified in the Eligibility Tests essential for employment as a teacher at various levels. So, all the students eligible for applying for KTET 2/2, SET, CTET and NET were exhorted to do so while doing the B.Ed Course. It was much beneficial for those who had no initiative of their own or motivation from their family. Timely reminding was done during the times of notification for the tests. As part of encouragement and motivation by all means, the students who could qualify these tests, were appreciated. Through the different student groups as well as the Alumni groups information regarding vacancies available in different institutions were forwarded. As part of the Placement drive, campus Interviews could be arranged. The authorities of Govt Teachers Honnamanakatte School and Maria Vidhya Sadan offline and online interviews were conducted.
