ALUMNI FEEDBACK – 2018-19

ACTION TAKEN REPORT

- Conduct a detailed review of the curriculum to identify specific areas where advanced topics can be introduced or further emphasized.
- Implement strategies to ensure a more uniform positive response regarding the enhancement of knowledge, skills, and attitudes. This may involve additional resources, innovative teaching methods, or closer alignment with industry needs.
- Strengthen the integration of gender, values, environment, and professional ethics into the curriculum. This can be achieved through faculty training, updating course content, and incorporating real-world case studies.
- Enhance the curriculum enrichment process to provide even greater motivation for higher education. This could involve collaborations with industry professionals, guest lectures, or career counseling initiatives.
- Address any identified gaps in providing opportunities for self-study and interest in research. This may involve creating dedicated research support programs or promoting extracurricular activities related to research.
- Continue to monitor and adapt the curriculum to evolving industry demands to ensure it consistently meets employability expectations.
