EMPLOYER FEEDBACK – 2021-22

ACTION TAKEN REPORT

- Established a regular feedback mechanism with employers to ensure continuous improvement in the curriculum.
- Conducted periodic meetings or surveys to gather real-time feedback on the curriculum's effectiveness.
- Identified specific areas within the curriculum that received lower ratings (e.g., opportunities for inculcating values, life skills development).
- Collaborated with academic experts and industry professionals to update and enhance these areas to meet the expectations of employers.
- Implemented additional modules or activities focused on developing professionalism among students.
- Provided opportunities for students to engage in real-world scenarios, internships, or workshops to enhance their professional skills.
- Explored ways to strengthen the values inculcation aspect of the curriculum. This involved incorporating ethical case studies, community service components, or value-based discussions within the coursework.
- Ensured that the curriculum remained up-to-date with the latest technological developments by regularly reviewing and updating relevant courses.
- Encouraged faculty to incorporate cutting-edge technology into their teaching methods to better prepare students for the demands of the modern workplace.
