Title: Resource Mobilisation Policy

Policy Owner: Principal

POLICY STATEMENT

The resource mobilization policy of an organization outlines how it will obtain and use resources to achieve goals. The structure for monitoring and evaluating the policy ensures that it is effective and in line with the objectives of the institution. Maintaining relevance and increasing stakeholder trust in the institution's sustainable practices are achieved through regular assessments and adjustments. The efficient use of management funds is organized by a financial advisory organization. Government funding is efficiently applied to authorized uses. The College Council and Finance committee monitors the way government funds are distributed.

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The College council review the proposal submitted by College Finance Committee and take decisions.
