Induction Programme & Bridge course on 'Teacher in new normal'

In this present world, things have changed pretty much after the Covid pandemic. So now, we use 'New normal' as a word to define this post pandemic time. Teachers are no longer regarded as an essential part in education, in this IT world. But teachers are the only people who can act as a mentor in moulding a better generation. Now teachers have to perform differently to deal with new students. In this attempt, they are bound to meet new challenges. So this session of 'Bridge Course' helped us to know those challenges and their solutions. Mr. Nithin Nangothi, a respected external mentor, international human columnist, National celebrity mentor and a change management expert was assigned as a resource person for the session. Harsha Santhosh from Natural Science introduced Mr. Nithin Nangothi to the batch. The session reflected the professional competency of him, since he is being dealt with many groups of people at various occasions for more than 20 years now.

He has dealt about 4 hours, including morning and afternoon sessions. His talk was simple, yet powerful. Some important points he pointed out are

- Self confidence
- Competitive quotient
- Energy, wealth and knowledge
- Clapping, time management, observation & concentration.

When the session came to an end, students were asked to give their feedbacks. Each of us emphasized on how far they enjoyed the session. They were all boosted up with energy and were able to muster up the courage to take mike and talk in front of class. Every students thanked him for boosting up their confidence through his wonderful and energetic talk. After feedback session, Niha Padmanabhan from Physical Science did vote of thanks. Now the batch of 2021-2023 looks forward to a lively 2year period in P.K.M. with an active and energetic mind.

Programme Report on
'TEACHER IN THE NEW NORMAL TRANSFORMING WITH CHANGING ROLES' 2021-2023

Date: 9-11-2021

The second day of the induction programme and bridge course began in the college auditorium with the welcome speech by Dr. Sholy Joseph K., Assistant Professor in Mathematics. Then Simna N.P. of first year social science student teacher introduced the guests Jayadevan S.K. and Santhosh Kumar from DIET, Kannur. Jayadevan sir interacted with us in a simple and humble way. He is an alumnus of

P.K.M. College and he was the teach mate of Principal Dr. Jessy N.C. He began his class with the words by saying that teaching profession is ancient as well as great. A student teacher must have good concentration and punctuality. Students are not empty vessels, and they need more practical knowledge. Today's teachers are not expected only to follow the lecture method but to help the students to think. Teachers should be updated too. He stressed on the point that situations are the mother of creativity. He focused on the words of his Principal Balakrishnan sir that 'human mind changes in every second'.

Next session began with a thrilling game by Santhosh sir. This ignited the mind and body of young teacher trainees, who would in future become the social engineers. The session was followed by a chain of activities. These activities were mind blowing and empowering. It also helped to increase the concentration, memory and team spirit. The winner of the activities was congratulated with gifts. This was a good experience for the student teachers.

Teaching becomes effective when the three aspects come together: Preparation, teaching and evaluation. It is a cyclic process. With the help of a student teacher Rosha B. Roy of English optional, Santhosh sir conducted an activity through which it is revealed that our classrooms are inclusive in nature but there are students with different phases of learning therefore every child should be treated individually.

Thereafter the class was divided into 10 group with the name of classroom objects like chalk, microscope, blackboard etc. Each group was given a task too. The topic "Teacher in The New Normal Transforming With changing Roles" was very well explained to the student teachers with this task. The session concludes with an Oscar awarded short film and the teachers were very happy and contented.

Dr. Jessy N.C., Principal of PKM College gave vote of thanks to the guests and also stressed on the key points of their classes. The second day induction programme came to an end with a talk of gratitude by Alex Jose from Malayalam optional.

3. ഈ പ്രോഗ്രാമിലൂടെ നിങ്ങളുടെ ചിന്തയെ ഉണർത്തിയ ഒരു ചിന്ത.

I appreciate the use of holy books from different religions and quoting its passages to convey a single message, but I truly wonder the need of using religion in educational schools. Unification of various religions in a marvellous message, however I think it does not given space for an ideology benefit of religion, which is essential while promoting a dominant order.
