The time period of fourth semester extended from March to June. During these months, the learners engaged in various activities related with the core theme of peace to realize, recognise and understand the subject deeply. Following are the ways the Peace Studies classes proceeded.

1. Discussions: Syllabus was mostly covered through discussion method.

2. Collaborative and Cooperative Learning: Group learning was done through assignments and PPT presentations.

3. Activity based learning method: It was adopted for bring a comprehensive idea on approaches towards peace. On 30th March 2023, student-teachers attended a workshop that deals with the themes of peace. It included construction of peace plot, with each team building a creative work based on the approach allotted to them. Peace plot consisted of two activities. They were peace art on the cloth and a peace installation. The learners were divided into ten groups according to the number of approaches towards peace and peace-building. They were:

- Peace-keeping approach
- Peace-making approach
- Peace-building approach
- Integrated approach
- Democracy approach
- Justice approach
- Reconstructive approach
- Top, middle and grassroot approach
- Transformational approach
- Feminist approach

4. Peace Workshop and Activities: “Varidhi” a half day workshop as part of B. ED E 401.3: Peace Education for the academic year 2022-23 was conducted on 30/03/2023 at college auditorium. The peace art and peace plot programs started at 10 am and came to a conclusion at 12:30 pm. The peace plot and art were made using only natural materials based on different themes.

Conclusion

Peace Studies offered a breath of fresh air to learners. It was felt the subject was relatively never discussed in a theoretical manner apart from viewing it as a noble value that needs to be inculcated in life. The journey of engaging with peace talks and activities along with the teacher educator Ms. Minimol George helped the learners to develop a new vision and incorporate a new value in life that needs to imparted in life.
