

HALLO

P.K.M.College of Education Madampam Kannur Accredited by NAAC with 'A' Grade (Third Cycle), RUSA 2.0 Beneficiary, UGC 2(f) 12(b)

Ranked Third in the Kerala Institutional Ranking Framework for TEIS

e - Paper

VOL. 11

Issue :5

April 2025

Chief Editor . Dr.Jessy N.C,
Aisso. Editors : Dr. Jisha James, Dr. Prasanth Mathew
Sub Editors : Sr. Christeena & Joby Mathew
Editor Technical : Mr. Joby Mathew

Here comes a pause for the Scholastic year, even though various events are performed enthusiastically in the month of March. All our students' contributed their efforts to make the program successful. Undoubtedly we can feel their dedication in every event that took place in our temple of learning. We commemorate Most Respectable Professor V.J. Joseph Kandoth Sir, in the beginning of the March as in every year. A plethora of memorable moments took place like College day, farewell for MARYCHECHI, & second year students etc. Let us read and enjoy the programs from this leaf..

KANDOTH DAY CELEBRATION & FAREWELL FOR MARYCHECHI

On March 1, 2025, at 2:30 PM, a memorial service for Professor V.J. Joseph Kandoth and farewell meeting for Mary Chechi were held in the college auditorium. Assistant Professor Dr. Sinoj Joseph delivered the welcome address, and College Principal Dr. Jessy N.C. presided over the event. The ceremony was inaugurated by Dr.K.V. Philomina, Chairperson of Sreekanthapuram Municipality. Pro-Manager Rev. Fr. Joy Kattiyankal delivered the memorial speech. Vice Principal Dr. Prashanth Mathew, retired librarian John P.T., Office Superintendent C. Karunya, Staff Association Secretary Mr. Rajesh K, and Union Chairperson Amin Mathew conveyed their wishes and remarks. Staff Association Joint Secretary Mrs. Deepa John expressed gratitude at the event. As part of the farewell, Mrs. Mary Joseph, who is retiring this year, was presented with a token of appreciation by the Staff Association. A video presentation highlighting memories of her service and a musical tribute were also showcased. As a tribute to Kandoth's memory, students performed a traditional folk song. During the event, this year's scholarship distribution was conducted by Dr. Veena Appukuttan.

FAREWELL FOR II YEAR STUDENTS

Samanwaya college union 2024-2025 conducted a Farewell programme for seniors on 6th March 2025. The teachers talked about their moments with these seniors. The students conducted many tasks and games for their seniors. The seniors shared about their valuable 2 year B.Ed journey. The farewell program was a resounding success, achieving its objectives of bidding a memorable farewell to the outgoing students and celebrating their achievements. The program content was engaging, varied, and meaningful, with a good balance of emotional and entertaining elements. The organization and logistics were well-managed, ensuring a smooth execution of the program. The delivery was exceptional, with heartfelt speeches, outstanding performances, and a palpable sense of nostalgia and gratitude. The audience feedback was overwhelmingly positive, with many praising the program's authenticity, emotional resonance, and overall impact. Overall, the farewell program was a fitting tribute to the outgoing students, and its success was a testament to the hard work and dedication of the organizers.

The Synergy of Technology and Pedagogy National seminar Paper Presentation

The three day (12/03/25-14/03/25) national seminar The Synergy of Technology and Pedagogy hosted by the School of Pedagogical Sciences, Dharmasala, Kannur University, explored the intersection of technology and pedagogy. This seminar aimed to bring together scholars, educators, researchers, and practitioners to discuss how technology can enhance learning outcomes, improve accessibility, and foster equity in education. On 14/03/25 Four students of PKM College of Education in the seminar. Ms. Mithuna C. Nair second year mathematics BEd student presented the research paper titled 'Impact of Instagram in Mathematics Learning of Secondary Students in Kannur District'. Ms. Sisira .V second year natural science student presented the paper entitled 'A Study on the Impact of Anxiety on Biology Achievement among Teenagers in the Digital'. 'A Study on Use of Dynamic Geometry Software among Secondary Students' was presented by Ms. Nandana Das second year mathematics student. The paper entitled 'Impact of digital divide on The achievement in biology Of adolescents in Kannur District' was presented by Ms Presna Prm, first year natural Science BEd student

WORLD POETRY DAY

On 25/03/2025, the Department of English observed World poetry Day with a commemorative event in the class-cum-methodology lab. The program was coordinated by the student teachers Denilson Vinoy and Benat Benny. Asika N.V the student teacher of English department delivered the welcome speech. Dr. Jisha James delivered the presidential address. In her presidential address, she emphasized upon the importance of poetry. Amin Mathew the chairman of the college union inaugurated the program. For celebrating the poetry day two student teachers Joel Joseph and Denilson Vinoy recited poems in English and Malayalam respectively. The program was ended with vote of thanks by the student teacher Benat Benny

P.K.M. Family

NEWSPAPER DAY CELEBRATION

The English Department organized an event to commemorate the significance of newspapers in education. The event aimed to highlight the educational value of newspapers, encourage their integration into teaching, and promote media literacy among student teachers. The event was headed by the department in-charge, Dr. Jisha James. Two student representatives, Christin Jose and Adarsh Kumar from the Malayalam Department, graced the occasion. They delivered insightful speeches on the importance of newspapers and the habit of reading in today's digital age. Their addresses emphasized the necessity of staying informed and developing critical thinking skills through regular newspaper reading. Sreelatha K.C., the coordinator cum resource person for the event, elaborated further on the significance of newspapers in education. She discussed how newspapers serve as an effective tool for improving language proficiency, enhancing current affairs knowledge, and fostering analytical skills in students. The event concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Joel Joseph, expressing gratitude to the dignitaries, organizers, and participants for their valuable contributions in making the event a success. The program effectively reinforced the relevance of newspapers in contemporary education and encouraged future educators to utilize them as a powerful teaching resource.

COLLEGE DAY

Samanwaya college union 2024- 2025 conducted COLLEGE DAY on 7 March 2025. The renowned writer Thaha Madayi inaugurated the Programme. After the official Programme the first year and second year students performed different kind of cultural programmes. It was a resounding success, achieving its objectives of promoting college spirit, celebrating academic achievements, and providing entertainment and relaxation. The event showcased the college's vibrant culture and traditions, highlighting the diversity and inclusivity of the community. The program was well-organized and executed, with a good balance of performances, games, and activities that catered to different interests. The student participation and engagement were impressive, with many students. The event also provided a platform for alumni to reconnect with the college and with each other. Overall, the college day program was a memorable and enjoyable experience for all, fostering a sense of community and college pride.

WOMEN'S DAY CELEBRATIONS

Women's Day is a global celebration that acknowledges the achievements and contributions of women in various spheres of life. It also serves as a reminder of the ongoing struggle for gender equality and women's empowerment. Our College, organized Women's Day celebrations on March 5 at the college auditorium with great enthusiasm. The event brought together faculty members, students, and distinguished guests to honour and celebrate the role of women in society. The primary objectives of the Women's Day celebration was To recognize and appreciate the contributions of women in different fields. The event was presided over by Dr. Jessy N.C., the esteemed Principal of PKM College. The program was officially inaugurated by Mrs. Josephina, Municipal Councilor of Sreekanthapuram, who delivered an inspiring speech emphasizing the importance of women's empowerment and their role in shaping society. The event commenced with a warm welcome speech delivered by Mrs. Jomol Jose, Assistant Professor at PKM College. She highlighted the significance of Women's Day and encouraged the attendees to continue striving for gender equality and social progress. Following the inauguration, various sessions and discussions took place, the program featured engaging talks and interactive sessions that inspired students and faculty alike. After the official meeting, a special performance was conducted, depicting a woman's journey and the present scenarios they face in society. This artistic presentation effectively conveyed the struggles and triumphs of women, leaving a lasting impact on the audience. A video presentation was then shown, introducing prominent women who have made significant contributions to different fields. This segment aimed to inspire students by showcasing role models who have broken barriers and achieved success. Following the video presentation, teachers and student representatives participated in an interactive session where they shared stories about the most influential women in their lives. This personal sharing session created a deep connection among the attendees, highlighting the importance of role models in shaping individuals' perspectives and aspirations. The celebrations concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks delivered by Jyothis Thomas, the Student Coordinator of the Women's Cell. She expressed gratitude to all dignitaries, faculty members, and students for their active participation and contribution to making the event a grand success.

